Dates for your Diary

+Remembrance Sunday

Prayer: God our Father, you reveal that those who work for peace will be called your sons and daughters. Help us to work without ceasing for that justice which brings true and lasting peace. May our efforts in bringing about justice and peace not only give honour to your name, but also be a fitting memorial to all who died, in past and present conflicts, for the sake of justice and peace. We make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymn: Abide with me

1. Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
the darkness deepens; Lord with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
help of the helpless, O abide with me.
2. Swift to its close, ebbs out life's little day;
earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.
3. I need Thy presence every passing hour.
what but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.
4. I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
5. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom,
and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Decade of the Rosary.

Please take newsletter with you to the memorial Cross

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn;
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
We will remember them. Robert Laurence Binyon

+Sick And Retired Clergy Fund

My Dear People, The annual collection for the support of the sick and retired clergy of the Diocese will be taken over the weekend of 17th/ 18th November. This fund ensures our priests receive the best care and support they deserve when they retire or fall ill after a lifetime of service in our parishes, schools, hospitals and other chaplaincies.

Whilst most people retire in their mid to late 60's, priests generally step down from the responsibilities of being a parish priest at the age of 75. Even after this, many of our priests continue in some form of active ministry- celebrating Mass where needed, supporting parish life, offering council and support to those in need and, above all, praying for the needs of all. Others simply become very old, too frail or incapacitated. But none are forgotten either by their former parishioners or the Diocese of Cardiff.

Your donations to this important collection ensure a dignified retirement for all of our priests. your support helps cover gaps in health care or health emergencies as well as providing care for those with chronic conditions or those who are disabled. Please contribute generously if you are able. By completing a Gift Aid envelope, taxpayers can add 25% to your donation at no cost to yourself. Envelopes for this purpose are available today.

Thank you for the care you already show for your own parish priest and the priests of the Diocese.

Archbishop of Cardiff

+How To Share Your Faith – Testimony Training Day

Saturday, December 8th, 10am - 3:30pm at the Pastoral Resources Centre, Cardiff.

In September, we launched our very own Certificate in Evangelisation (ACE). Part of the course includes a day of training and assessment focussing on how we share our faith - a testimony of Jesus in our lives - which is being opened up to all in the diocese. This training will include seminars on the importance of being able to share our testimony and why they are an evangelisation tool as well as a very practical workshop on how to write and share your own testimony with helpful hints and tips. There will be time for one to one help, personal reflection on your journey with God so far and finally an opportunity to try giving your testimony with formal feedback. The cost of the training day is £25 which includes lunch. However, we do not wish for financial cost to be a barrier to attending so if you wish to explore the option of receiving a bursary please get in touch with me. To book your place please visit: rcadc.org/event/how-to-share-your-faith-testimony-training-day
