Dear parishioners,
As you are aware permission has been granted for the reopening of churches for worship and the celebration of the sacraments. Here at St. Helen’s preparations are underway for the reopening of the church. While we rejoice that once again, we can celebrate Mass with the presence of our parishioners, we must adhere to the guidelines as set down by the Government of Wales. One of the guidelines is the observance of the 2-metre social distancing. This will mean that the number of people who can be accommodated for any communal prayer or liturgy will be much reduced. Some people, due to existing health concerns may not be ready to return just yet, while others are ready to attend straight away. Obviously, each person’s position is respected. The dispensation from the Sunday and Holy Day obligation is also extended. Setting up a system that allows an equal opportunity for all who wish to attend is not that simple. Parishioners are requested to indicate either by phone or email their desire to attend Mass. Please state your means of contact name, email address & telephone number. A place will be reserved for you. If after you have notified your intention to attend you then discover this will not be possible, please, inform us as soon as possible so that the seat can be allocated to someone else.

As soon as we have a date for reopening, and everything is in place a notice will be placed on the website. On reopening our Mass times will be the normal weekend times of Saturday evening 6.30pm, Sunday morning 8.30am and 10.30am. Alternatively, they will be printed and made available for you to collect from church during the private prayer hours. If either the ceasing of the shopping calls, weekly phone calls and postal newsletter as of 31st July 2020. †The God Who Speaks
From March to June you have had an unexpected break from school, although you were learning at home. Now the proper time for your break from school has arrived. It is holiday time. A time for you to relax and play and enjoy your family. Have a lovely time, stay safe and may you be happy in all that you do. When the new school year begins be full of energy and enthusiasm to greet you friends and teachers.

Not all of our children will be returning to St. Helen’s school as many of them will be moving on to their new school, St. Richard Gwyn. Although you might be a little nervous I hope you are excited. There you will make new friends and meet new teachers. You will also meet some of the pupils that have gone before you. The children at St. Helen’s are always well prepared for their move to St. Richard Gwyn where they are well received by the staff. This year, due to the long break from school, the preparation will be different. Not to worry, your teachers and the teachers at St. Richard Gwyn are working hard to make sure your arrival will be pleasant, at this the beginning of a new stage in your young life. Look forward to it with joy.

Once again, may all of you have a lovely holiday from school. May God be with you and bless you. -Fr Pat
