+Face Covering Guidelines

When gathering in “open premises” – including places of worship and community centres – it is now a requirement to wear a face covering as well as taking the other steps, such as hand washing and physical distancing, which are required. Welsh Government defines a “face covering” as follows – “The World Health Organisation recommends a minimum of three layers in a face covering. Face coverings must cover the mouth and nose” This applies to all, including worship leaders and those speaking in other permitted meetings. The requirement for “three layers” means that a visor alone is not permitted. There are exception to the requirement to wear a face covering for medical reasons, and it is permitted to remove the covering “to communicate with another person who has difficulty communicating (in relation to speech, language or otherwise)” [Regulation 12B(4)(c)]. Fuller guidance for the public is published here - https://gov.wales/face-coverings-guidance-public?_ga=2.51750447.728759724.1600073131-1091050911.1599566111 and for premises managers here - <https://gov.wales/face-coverings-guidance-measures-be-taken-employers-and-managers-premises>

+Pope Francis: New Encyclical

Pope Francis will travel to Assisi on October 3 to sign an encyclical on the social, political and economic obligations that flow from a belief that all people are children of God and therefore brothers and sisters to one another.

The Holy See press office, confirming the Pope’s trip, said the document will be titled Fratelli Tutti in Italian. In English, the phrase could be translated as “Brothers and Sisters All,” but apparently it is inspired by what is known as St. Francis of Assisi’s “sixth admonition” to the friars, all of whom were men.

Conventual Franciscan Father Mauro Gambetti, custodian of the Assisi convent, said the document “will indicate to the world a style for the future and will give the Church and people of goodwill the responsibility for building it together”.

“The Pope is clearly inspired by Francis of Assisi who, in following Jesus, recognised in fraternity, lived under the sign of mutual and loving service, the horizon of a fulfilled and happy humanity,” Fr Gambetti said.

The encyclical is expected to echo many of the themes Pope Francis has been discussing in his general audience talks on Catholic social teaching in light of the pandemic – human fraternity, the equal dignity of all people, the preferential option for the poor, the universal destination of goods and the obligation of solidarity. Care for the environment and the virtue of peace-making also are expected to be part of the encyclical. After Pope Francis signs the document on the eve of the feast of St Francis, the text is expected to be published in a variety of languages the first week of October.

+First Holy Communion

All going well, First Holy Communion will be celebrated on Saturday 12th October. Originally, this was to take place on 16th May, but like many an event it had to be postponed due to Covid-19. As always this day will be a special day in the life of the children and in the life of the parish. Please remember the children and their families in your prayers.
